SAFEGUARDING POLICY

THE WOMBLES COMMUNITY CHARITY

A registered charity in England and Wales (number 1202563)

Next Review date: 23 August 2024

Purpose

Our charitable activities may include working with people at risk of abuse or neglect through our educational programmes in schools and an events with local community groups. The purpose of this policy is to protect them and provide stakeholders and the public with the overarching principles that guide our approach in doing so.

We are committed to the protection and safety of adults at risk and children whether they are volunteers and/or participants in our activities. We will protect and support volunteers who work with us as well as users of our services.

Applicability

The purpose of this policy statement is:

- To protect children and young people who receive our services from harm. This may include the children of adults who use our services.
- To provide staff and volunteers, as well as children and young people and their families with principles that guide our approach to safeguarding and child protection.

This policy applies to anyone working on our behalf, including our trustees and other volunteers.

Partner organisations will be required to have their own safeguarding procedures that must, as a minimum, meet the standards outlined below, and include any additional legal or regulatory requirements specific to their work. For the avoidance of doubt, the charity has no safeguarding responsibility to any of the local litter picking groups who may have signed up to the charity's register.

Principles

We believe that:

- Nobody who is involved in or who may benefit from our work should ever experience abuse, harm, neglect or exploitation.
- We all have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all of our staff and volunteers, to keep them safe and to work in a way that protects them.
- We all have a collective responsibility for creating a culture in which our people not only feel safe, but also able to speak up, if they have any concerns.
